2011 Recruitment Initiatives

CFR § 76.75 (b) (2)

Time Warner Cable – New York, NY
FCC Unit: 8899

1. Participation in at least two job fairs by personnel who have substantial responsibility in the making of hiring decisions.

The TWC Corporate – New York office participated in the Latpro and NSHP Bilingual Professional career fair on Thursday, April 14, 2010. The event hosted approximately 1,000 potential employees from various industries. LatPro and NSHP (National Society for Hispanic Professionals) help provide Hispanic and bilingual professionals seeking employment with language skills, international experience and multicultural knowledge. The purpose for attending this event was to educate potential candidates of the cable industry. In this effort, the company focused on presenting diverse individuals with opportunities within the Telecommunication industry.

The TWC Corporate – New York office participated in the Coast to Coast career fair on Tuesday, May 17, 2010. This job fairs draw a wide variety of candidates from diverse backgrounds and ethnicity. The TWC booth was staffed by the recruiting team which includes recruiting manager and recruiters as well as members of management that were actively involved in the recruitment process. The event hosted approximately 600 potential employees from various industries. The recruiting team provided information regarding current openings and career opportunities within TWC.

2. Participation in at least two events sponsored by community groups active in cable employment issues (including conventions, career days, and workshops).

On October 27 - 28, 2010, employees from the Talent Acquisition & Movement Department and several other hiring leaders attended NAMIC's national annual conference in New York City. There were over 1,000 people in attendance at this event. The National Association for Multi-Ethnicity in Communications is an association which educates advocates and empowers for multi-ethnic diversity in the telecommunications industry through its 18 nationwide chapters. Members are cable operators, programmers, hardware suppliers, telecommunication and new media professionals and entrepreneurs. NAMIC members range from customer service facing employees to executive level leaders, and every position in-between. TWC participated in this event to show support of multi-racial ethnicity within the industry and meet with and educate people of the opportunities within the company.

On September 21 - 25, 2010, several hiring leaders attended the Black MBA Association Annual Conference in Los Angeles, California. The organization is a not-for-profit organization focused on helping African Americans achieve economic wealth through promoting pursuit of higher education.

The Annual Conference brings together people of diverse perspectives and backgrounds. Our purpose at this event was to meet and educate attendees of the opportunities available in the cable industry within TWC's locations across the country, including the Corporate – New York location.
